INFORMATION CIRCULAR GNLU/IC/104/10

Subject: Developing World Review of Trade & Competition (DWRTC) – Call for Applications

The Developing World Review of Trade & Competition is borne out of a necessity to have a forum where practitioners, policy makers and academia would come together to discuss, debate and address the unique concern of developing countries in the field of international trade and competition law. The Review aspires to create awareness about the position and significance of the law of trade and competition in developing countries.

The Review is pleased to announce call for applications for the post of Student Editorial Assistants for the Review.

Interested applicants are expected to submit a 500-1000 word write up on a topic of International economic law as well as a vision statement for the Review. A vision statement should lay down in specific detail concrete suggestions and ideas as well as a roadmap for implementation for such ideas with respect to the Review.

Submissions should be emailed to dwrtp@gnl.u.ac.in latest by April 17, 2010, 5.00 P.M. Students who are already a part of other publications of the University are not eligible to apply for the post.

Student Editorial Assistants once selected shall be required to submit a monthly status report of the activities carried out by him/her. Continuation in the Review Board would in addition to other factors be contingent on the timely submission of the status report.
