Subject: AIESEC - Information Seminar on international exchange programme

We are pleased to inform you that AIESEC is organizing an information seminar at GNLU. The seminar would highlight the various internship opportunities that AIESEC offers through its Global Exchange Programme.

AIESEC is a global youth organization that develops leadership capabilities through their internal leadership programmes and engaging students and graduates in international student exchange and internship programmes for profit and non-profit organizations. Its international office is in Rotterdam, Netherlands. AIESEC network includes over 50,000 members in 110 countries and territories, making it the largest youth-run organization in the world. It is present in over 1,600 universities across the globe, provides more than 10,000 leadership experiences to its members and sends students and graduates on 10,000 international exchanges yearly.

All students are invited to attend the seminar.
