Application for Student Exchange Program

GNLU is pleased to inform that several students undertook small-term course/research assignments at various universities abroad. GNLU is inviting application from students (4th year LLB/LLM) for such student exchange program at the following universities/institutions. GNLU expects to send maximum two students at each of these universities, depending upon the consent of the host university, however.

- Université de Rouen, France,
- University Copenhagen, Denmark,
- IDSE Institute, Spain,
- Haifa Law School, Haifa University, Israel,
- Faculty of Law, University of Malaya, Malaysia,
- Hague Law School, The Hague University, the Netherlands,

The terms and conditions of the exchange program for each of the university varies. Some universities may ask for payment of tuition fee directly to them or some may give full waiver. Expenses related to boarding-lodging, travel, visa etc will have to be born by the selected students. GNLU will facilitate in searching free/low-cost boarding-lodging. GNLU will ensure the transfer of credits and marks, as appropriate obtained under these programs to the beneficiary students.

Student may choose maximum two universities. The selection will be based on the individual students undertaking of payment of all expenses (excluding those which GNLU may get under the exchange program), scores in CGPA, moot, research, presentation of papers, extra-curricular activities and discipline, attendance, ethics-value based contribution as a GNLU student.

Interested students may send their curriculum vitae and Statement of Purpose to dpatel@gnlu.ac.in before 10 January 2010.
